Its been a long tme since I played with one of these but it sounds like a fault in the spin motor servo, if it didn't find focus the disk wouldn't try to spin. The Philips CD350 used the same Laser and its Service Manual can be found on H-Fi Engine; I would start by checking the Electrolytics in the PSU (as others have suggested). I have had this Clock fail in the past Hope this helps, James About B&O laser-drives... Download address? Download Instructions? Use WinRAR v3.10 or later software, unzip all the files.
